Graduate Assistantship Master of Architecture Program

Department of Architecture | College of Engineering, Technology, and Architecture

Department of Architecture Chair | Associate Professor James Fuller, AIA, NCARB

About the Graduate Assistantship

The Department of Architecture offers Teaching Assistantship (TA) positions to qualified students enrolled in the Master of Architecture Program. The graduate assistants will work with full-time faculty as teaching assistants in the Department of Architecture's undergraduate courses or as a student support assistant in the Department Woodshop and/or fabrication labs.

Criteria and Eligibility

Students entering the first or second year of the Master of Architecture program at the University of Hartford are eligible to apply for the Teaching Assistantship. Numerous assistantships will be awarded per academic semester based on the needs of the Department.

Compensation

The Teaching Assistantships will be compensated between $750-$1,500 per semester based on the demands of the position.

Selection Process

Those applying for the Assistantship must submit narrative addressing how they are deserving of the position. The narrative should be clear and concise and of 300-400 words in length. The application should be a PDF and submitted to James Fuller, Department of Architecture Chair (fuller@hartford.edu). The deadline for application submission is the first Monday in August (fall semester) or the first Monday in January (Spring semester). Applications will be reviewed by the Master of Architecture Program Leadership Team.

Announcements and Obligations

The announcement of the award is scheduled to take place one week before the beginning of each semester. Graduate Assistants need to maintain a 3.0 GPA to retain their assistantship.
