Are You Interested in Applying for a Dorothy Goodwin Scholarship?

Dorothy Goodwin Scholars are creative self-starters with a compelling research question who meet the following criteria:

- Women students who are sophomores or juniors (rising juniors or seniors) in any school or college of the University of Hartford studying any academic discipline are eligible to apply.
- Good academic standing (3.0 or above for over-all GPA; 3.5 or above for major).
- Original scholarly or creative project that will be explored in partnership with a University of Hartford faculty member (adjunct faculty or staff may participate) for 10 weeks with the summer program (20 hours per week) or 200 hours during the full academic year program. Research will likely take place on campus, but might also be pursued in other geographic locations if appropriate for the participants and the project.

Dorothy Goodwin Scholars for the summer program are chosen each spring, scholars for the academic year program are chosen each summer. Contact Margaret Gooch, program administrator, at gooch@hartford.edu or at 860.768.5289 for more information.
