Words of Wisdom for our BAR211 students

Mr. Britton left the students with some significant advice that will be foundational to being “career ready”:

Most importantly he said always “follow your heart and be sure to do what you enjoy” and in addition:

1. Seeking out mentors
2. Change mentors as you progress in your career
3. Networking at all times – connections that will be important when you least expect it!