Our program is required to comply with the JRCERT Standards for an Accredited Educational Program in Radiography:

Standard One: Integrity
The program demonstrates integrity in the following: representations to communities of interest and the public, pursuit of fair and equitable academic practices, and treatment of, and respect for, students, faculty, and staff.

Standard Two: Resources
The program has sufficient resources to support the quality and effectiveness of the educational process.

Standard Three: Curriculum and Academic Practices
The program’s curriculum and academic practices prepare students for professional practice.

Standard Four: Health and Safety
The program’s policies and procedures promote the health, safety, and optimal use of radiation for students, patients, and the general public.

Standard Five: Assessment
The program develops and implements a system of planning and evaluation of student learning and program effectiveness outcomes in support of its mission.

Standard Six: Institutional/Programmatic Data
The program complies with JRCERT policies, procedures, and STANDARDS to achieve and maintain specialized accreditation.

The RAD program consistently strives to exceed the minimum requirements for compliance with all JRCERT Standards for an Accredited Educational Program in Radiography. In the event that a student has cause for concern that the RAD program may not be in compliance with any standard(s), they are encouraged to report the allegation, in writing, to the RAD program director. The report must be submitted within 10 academic days of the event of alleged non-compliance. The RAD program director will work with the student and any other involved program member in an effort to clarify or resolve the issue of alleged non-compliance. In the event that a satisfactory resolution cannot be attained, the student is encouraged to report the alleged issue of non-compliance directly to the JRCERT, following the process outlined here:
