Report Information
This report is conducted under contract with the Kaput Center for Research and Innovation in STEM Education (Kaput Center) in Fairhaven, Massachusetts. This work would not be possible without considerable cooperation from the researchers at the Kaput Center.

The University of Massachusetts Donahue Institute is the public service, outreach, and economic development unit of the University of Massachusetts President's Office. Established in 1971, UMDI strives to connect the Commonwealth with the resources of the University through services that combine theory and innovation with public and private sector applications.

UMDI's Research and Evaluation group specializes in applied social science research, including program evaluation, survey research, policy research, and needs assessment. The Research and Evaluation group has designed and implemented numerous innovative research and evaluation projects for a variety of programs and clients in the areas of education, human services, economic development, and organizational development.
