Welcome to the Master of Music Education Degrees Summer Term 2019.

We invite you to spend the summer exploring music teaching and learning at The Hartt School. Our core classes and workshops are the ideal opportunity for music teachers and students to immerse themselves in the study of music education. Hartt Summerterm has provided more than 30 years of outstanding core courses and workshops for graduate students from May 20 to July 1. Many students complete our Summers Only Master of Music Education program by taking courses throughout the school year in addition to summer coursework.

The learning environment is one that fosters personal and professional growth, as well as an esprit de corps and camaraderie that establishes new and cherished relationships among students.

Hartt Summerterm also encourages an environment where the exchange of ideas (pedagogy, technology, Kodály, etc.) to take any workshops available (conducting, Kodály methodology will still be able to do that most inform their current practice. Students who wish to focus their studies on complete the elective requirements of their degree tracks, pedagogy or Kodály. The Hartt School prefers that applicants have at least one year of teaching experience before beginning their MMusEd. Students can select one of two summers-only master’s degree programs, either Autumn or Spring. The learning environment is one that fosters personal and professional growth, as well as an esprit de corps and camaraderie that establishes new and cherished relationships among students.

To that end, without eliminating any areas of study, we have created a new, even more flexible way of study, which will most inform their current practice. Students who wish to focus their studies on complete the elective requirements of their degree tracks, either Pedagogy or Kodály.
