Event Services Committee Minutes

Tuesday, February 28, 2017
Attendees: Jessica Abbott, Charles Amerson, Ann Butzer, Felecia Bumpus, Jane Horvath, Dr. DeLois Lindsey, Lt. Lyons, Fallon Roberson

1. EAT Pi
   Annual Greek Life Pie eating contest. $4 to attend and $8 to participate.

   Monday, March 6, 2017
   8 pm – 10 pm

   Location: GSU South Café

   This is a Level 1 student organization sponsored event hosted by Sigma Delta Tau Sorority and Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity. This is a contest to raise money for the sponsoring organizations' philanthropy. Jacob has been fundraising money to cover the expense of for the pies provided by Stop and Shop. Tickets will be sold through the Hawk Hub. $4 for spectators and $8 for participants. Public Safety will provide extra attention at no cost. Trash Bins will be provided. Jessica will email Jacob a quote of the expenses for the delivery of trash cans and coverage for cleaning. Charges need to be split between IFC and Panhel. Jacob will need to confirm that Pat and/or Jamie will be in attendance for the event.

   Requested by: Jacob Nemeth
   Alpha Epsilon Pi
   Ellin Gurvitch
   Sigma Delta Tau

2. Delta Gamma Anchorman

   Anchorman is our male beauty pageant where contestants from fraternities, sports teams and other organizations on campus volunteer to participate. The event includes categories such as dress like DG, beach wear, formal wear, talent and DG trivia. The contestants are judged by Delta Gamma alumnæ. This an annual spring event that we put on. All money raised goes directly towards the Delta Gamma Foundation and Service for Sight.

   Wednesday, March 8, 2017
   7:45 pm – 9:45 pm

   Location: GSU South Café

   Level 1 Philanthropy Event sponsored by Delta Gamma Sorority. Student Centers Resources requested include: stage, four (4) 4ft tables, 250 chairs and two (2) wireless microphones. There will be a DJ for the event who will need a Powered Speaker for this event. Public Safety will provide extra attention for this event. Theater set up will be on the South Side of the GSU Café and North Café will remain as dining layout.

   *An additional wireless microphone and mic stand was
3. Chop’t: Art Edition

Chop’t: Art Edition is a remake of the famous cooking show “Chop’t”, but instead of using food, we will be utilizing art supplies. The objective of the competition is for each contestant to make a art piece with the given utensils during a set amount of time. Whoever has the best piece wins the round. It will be held in Konover’s Great room from 5-7 pm.

Saturday, March 11, 2017
5:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Location: Konover Great Room

Level 1 event sponsored by the Campus Activities Team. Students participating in the event will use nontraditional art supplies to create a piece of art with set time. Art supplies are still being discussed and finalized by the organization.

Felecia suggests that C.A.T purchases drop cloths to lay on the floor of the Great Room. Ms. Lois may have extra to provide the group from the Holiday Party. There will be no food or refreshments for during this event. Dana will meet with Fallon to go over the layout for the space. Dana has contacted students from the Art School to participate in the event. Jane suggests reaching out to the Gallery on campus to display the winners’ art. Facilities will provide extra trash bins. Public Safety will provide extra attention for the event.

Requested by: Dana Barnes
Campus Activities Team