Meet the Author

Patrick McCaughey, a brilliant conversationalist and author, will discuss his new autobiography, The Bright Shapes and the True Names a Memoir with Humphrey Tonkin. His emigration to Australia, discovery of art, and glittering directorship at the National Gallery of Victoria is eloquently revealed in his new book. McCaughey is well known to Connecticut audiences and is the former director of the Yale Center for British Art in New Haven and of the Wadsworth Atheneum in Hartford.

Copies of the book will be available for purchase.

---

Patrick McCaughey

THE BRIGHT SHAPES AND THE TRUE NAMES A MEMOIR

---

Book Signing and Reception

WHEN Thursday
November 4, 2004

WHERE Wilde Auditorium
University of Hartford

TIME 4:30 - 6:30 pm

FEE $10*

PARKING Parking Lot D

Reservations Required
Call Linda Rybacki - 860.768.4246
or return the reservation form below

* Fellows of The President’s College — no charge

---

Reservation Form - Patrick McCaughey

Name ___________________________________________________ ☐ President's College Fellow

Address ___________________________________________ City __________________State _______

Tel (860) __________________________ (day)      Tel (860) _________________________ (evening)

Total amount enclosed $___________________

Fee may be paid by (check one) VISA ☐ MasterCard ☐ Discover ☐ Check ☐

Credit Card No. ________________________________________________ Exp Date _____________

Signature _____________________________________________________

Make check payable to University of Hartford

Send order form and check to The President's College
University of Hartford
200 Bloomfield Avenue
West Hartford, CT 06117-1599