MINORS AND SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The College offers a wide variety of minors and special programs that are taken in addition to and complement a major. These programs include traditional departmental minors and inter-disciplinary programs and certificates. The requirements for these programs are given in the official University of Hartford bulletin 2015-16.

Special Programs

- A&S Honors Program
- Applied Social Research Certificate
- Biology Honors Program
- Computer Science Certificate (available to college graduates)
- Computer Science Honors Programs
- Mathematics Honors Program
- Physics Honors Program
- Philosophy Honors Program
- Psychology Honors Program
- Study Abroad Program
- University Scholar Program
- Washington Semester Program

Departmental Minors

- Africana Studies
- Biology
- Chemistry
- Cinema
- Communication
- Computer Science
- Criminal Justice
- Economics
- English
- Environmental Studies
- French
- Gender Studies
- History
- International Studies
- Italian
- Judaic Studies
- Mathematics
- Philosophy
- Physics
- Political Economy
- Politics & Government
- Psychology
- Sociology
- Spanish

Special Advising Programs

- Premedical Professional Programs (Chiropractic, Dentistry, Medicine, Optometry, Osteopathy, Pharmacy, Podiatry, Veterinary Medicine)
- Pre-Law
- Teacher Certification Program

In addition to minors, programs and certificates in the College of Arts and Sciences, students may minor in other colleges while majoring in A&S. Information about these minors is available in the respective schools and colleges on campus.