

FALL 2020 DEI VIRTUAL STAFF AND FACULTY PROFESSIONAL DAY

Racial Equity:
Building a Culture of
Inclusion at UHart

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8

Virtual on Zoom Platform

Part 1

9:30-11:30 a.m.

Lunch Break

Part 2

1:00-3:00 p.m.

The afternoon session is a continuation of the morning session. Please plan to attend both sessions. Participants will be divided into work groups. Continuing education credits and a certificate will be awarded for the successful completion of the Fall 2020 Staff and Faculty DEI Professional Day.

Join us for this interactive virtual workshop on race and racism that will examine bias, oppression, and privilege in the United States. Workshop leaders will guide participants through the following topics:

- A historical overview of racism and how it impacts everyone
- The cycle of socialization
- Our role in racialized social structure
- Implicit bias and microaggressions

Staff and faculty, including those who have taken past trainings, are strongly encouraged to participate. This exploration of racism and how it impacts all of our lives, communities, and campuses is now more critical than ever.

National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ)

Co-facilitators:

Cynthia Martin, NCCJ President & CEO
Nyaunu Stevens, NCCJ Director of Programs

Advancing Equality.
Promoting Justice.
Building Community.

Click HERE for registration details or to register now.

After registering, you will receive a confirmation e-mail containing the Zoom link. You will not be asked for any payment information.

Hosted by the President's Office of Diversity and Community Engagement and the Office of Human Resources.

Contacts: Chris Grant or Jen Conley

UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD