

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM NEWS

Welcome to Another Academic Year!!!

We have several announcements this time, so read on. We look forward to seeing our students in remote classes beginning this week.

Student News

Current program student Floyd W. Green III was recently appointed to the Connecticut Arts Council by the state of Connecticut Senate. Congratulations on such an important recognition and opportunity!

Program Faculty Delivering Keynote at Faculty Event

Dr. K. Kayon Morgan, assistant professor in our program, and her colleague and partner Dr. T. Lee Morgan, assistant professor at Sacred Heart University presented the keynote conversation on August 17th to full and part-time faculty and staff at the HARTT School. The title was: "Whose class is it anyway? (Re)defining Inclusion and Belonging."

Dean of Hartt School Dale A. Merrill said of the presentation:

I so loved your approach and how quickly you got the group engaged through your personal stories, your empathy and simply just having us move. Over the years I have found people resistant or disengaged in these important conversations – however on Wednesday that is not what I was seeing. I have received many, many positive comments from my faculty about your presentation, which is truly a testament to the success of your approach. It was wonderful to get to know you both better and the important work you are doing

New Book

Emeritus professor and former program director Dr. Donn Weinholtz has been busy in his retirement and he just published a book titled, Friendly Leadership. (If you have an unlimited Kindle subscription, there is a free version accessible from the link). Influenced by his long involvement as a Quaker, Dr. Weinholtz provides an overview of leadership theories, communication skills, group dynamics, and ethical considerations, giving us insights into how to “humanely influenc[e] others to seek positive, mutually rewarding outcomes” (p. 1). Dr. Weinholtz can be reached at weinholtz@hartford.edu. He will love to hear from you all!

Position Announcement

Director Human Services Degree Programs

The Goodwin University School of Applied Liberal Arts and of Social Sciences invites applications for the position of Director for the Human services associate and baccalaureate degree programs. The Human Services Program Director serves under the direction of and reports to the Dean of School of Applied Liberal Arts and of Social Sciences. The Director is responsible for leading and managing all programmatic functions to ensure delivery of a high-quality curriculum that is rooted in Universal Design for Learning principles and supports student success. Representative programmatic responsibilities include but are not limited to teaching undergraduate courses each semester (fall, spring, summer), advising students, assessing course- and program-level student learning outcomes, ensuring the program curriculum is current, supervising and evaluating faculty, developing and managing the program budget, building community partnerships, and marketing the program.

Additional information about the position and the application can be found here.

Applicants must submit a resume/CV and a letter of interest (cover letter) that addresses the candidate’s ability to fulfill duties as outlined in the posting.

Diana J. LaRocco, Ed.D.

Dean, School of Applied Liberal Arts and Social Sciences

Director, Goodwin University Institute for Learning Innovation

dlarocco@goodwin.edu

Learning Opportunity

We heard about this webinar and heard good things about it:

Mastering the Essentials of APA Style (7th Edition)

In this 2-hour, web-based training, Heartful Editor will provide an overview of the essential guidelines in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA, 7th Edition), including paper elements and format, writing style and grammar, bias-free language guidelines, mechanics of style, tables and figures, works credited in the text, and formatting the reference list. We will also highlight tips and strategies for editing theses, dissertations, manuscripts for publication, and more. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions as we discuss the many nuances of APA and academic writing!

Mastering the Essentials of APA Style will be offered at no cost to students and faculty in the Fall 2022 semester, from August 10th to December 19th, at various days and times! The same webinar is offered each week, so please register for only one date. Webinars are limited to 500 participants per session and fill up quickly. Advanced registration is required.

To register, or for more information, please visit www.heartfuleditor.com/training

Sara Kathleen Henry, PhD (she/her and they/them)

Founder and Editor-in-Chief, Heartful Editor

www.heartfuleditor.com

Write to us!

We love staying in touch with all students and alumni, and we want to celebrate any accomplishments big or small. Please send us a line to say hi or to share what is happening in your life.

Program Faculty:

Karla I. Loya, Associate Professor and Program Director, loyasquare@hartford.edu

Karen Case, Associate Professor, kcase@hartford.edu

K. Kayon Morgan, Assistant Professor, kemorgan@hartford.edu