

Study Abroad Judicial Review Form

The University of Hartford requires a judicial review for all study abroad applicants. The existence of judicial records at the participant's home institution does not necessarily mean denial of admission to a program; however, the information must be reviewed by the University of Hartford's International Center for final determination. Students must inform their home institution's study abroad office regarding their intention to participate in a University of Hartford study abroad program.

Instructions for the Student: Please complete Section I of this form and deliver to your institution's Judicial Officer.

Instructions for the Judicial Officer: The student named on this form has authorized the release of his/her judicial record to the International Center at the University of Hartford. Please complete the second section of this form and scan both pages to Nicole Kurker-Stewart at kurkerste@hartford.edu.
