

Emeriti Scholarship Award Announcement

The Emeriti Association of the University of Hartford offers three $1,500 scholarship awards for the academic year 2017-2018. Applications for the awards are due by March 17, 2017. The awards, given annually to University of Hartford undergraduate students, are based on the following criteria:

- a) Scholarly achievement. A Grade Point Average of at least 3.25 is the minimum expected for consideration by the selection committee.
- b) Service. The candidate must provide evidence of activities which contribute to the betterment of the University of Hartford and/or the community at large.
- c) The applicant must be an undergraduate in any of the colleges at the University of Hartford and must have completed at least one semester at the university. Applicants should be entering their junior or senior year as full-time students in the fall 2017 semester.
- d) A successful applicant may seek renewal of the award provided all the criteria for eligibility, as stated above, are satisfied; however, every effort will be made to rotate the award among the various colleges of the University.

How to apply

There is no application form. Students must submit a letter outlining their qualifications for consideration. Students should submit in hard copy:

- 1) A letter of application (no more than 2 pages) which includes your school, major, level, and current Grade Point Average; your goals and objectives; and information pertaining to your scholarship and service activities. Indicate the names of your two references.
- 2) A resume (must be no more than one page in length). Please be sure to include a current address, telephone number and current email address.
- 3) Two letters of recommendation from the applicant's advisor and/or other faculty members.

The awards are being promoted through the Office of Student Services in each of the colleges of the University. The Emeriti Scholarship Committee, which represents a diversity of faculty disciplines, shall evaluate all applications and recommend three students for the awards. The awards for academic year 2017-18 will be announced in April 2017, once the scholarship committee's recommendations have been ratified by the Emeriti Executive Committee.

Applications are due by 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, March 17, 2017

Submit all materials by intercampus mail or in person to:

Mary Dowst, Office Coordinator

Department of Biology and Department of Chemistry Room BC257 (Ext. 4531).