Barney School of Business Accounting Degree Ranked in Top 25

One of the most affordable among top-ranked online master's in accounting degree programs for 2016

The Master of Science in Accounting and Taxation (MSAT) degree at The University of Hartford's Barney School of Business has been ranked one the 25 most affordable among top-ranked online master's in accounting degree programs for 2016. The ranking is part of The Best Master's Degrees series designed to provide useful information about various types of master's degrees. Their editors provide reviews and rankings to help prospective students narrow down the field when it comes to selecting which programs to pursue.

For the most affordable top-ranked online master's in accounting ranking, 55 schools that offered an online master's degree in accounting or an MBA with accounting concentration were examined. Each school's rankings were reviewed from major publications like Forbes magazine, The Princeton Review, and U.S. News and World Report. The 25 most affordable institutions were then ranked based on their graduate tuition rates and fees listed by NCES College Navigator.

"The Barney School of Business is committed to preparing students to launch and further their careers," said Marty Roth, dean and professor of management and marketing at the Barney School. "Our expansion into online learning has maintained our high quality standards while adjusting to the learning needs of working professionals." Adds Professor James Bannister, Chair of the Accounting and Taxation Department, "We have a long history of preparing students to earn the Certified Public Accountant designation, and to establish successful careers in public, corporate, governmental, and non-profit accounting. We are gratified to be ranked as a top accounting program that provides great value to our students."
