

Spring 2023 Diversity Equity, and Inclusion Faculty Fellowship Program

*The Office of Diversity, Equity, and Community Engagement is pleased to announce the Spring 2023 Diversity, Equity and Inclusion
Faculty Fellow,
PROFESSOR SHIVANGI NANGIA*

Professor Nangia is Assistant Professor of Chemistry in the College of Arts and Sciences since the fall of 2020. Born in New Delhi, India, Dr. Nangia earned her Ph.D. in Chemistry from the Pennsylvania State University, State College, in 2013 and completed her postdoctoral training in the Department of Molecular and Cell Biology at the University of Connecticut. She has presented her research at annual national conferences such as The American Institute of Chemical Engineers (AIChE) and The American Physical Society (APS).

The DEI Faculty Fellow works closely with the Assistant Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Community Engagement on initiatives to advance UHart's on-going commitment to an equitable and inclusive campus culture and climate where each person feels supported and safe. During the fellowship, Prof. Nangia will work with the Co-Chairs of the President Steering Committee on DEI, In-term Provost, Katherine Black, the Center for Teaching Excellence and Innovation, and the Associate Provost for Faculty Affairs.

The DEI Faculty Fellowship Program allows faculty members to immerse themselves more deeply in projects that focus on institutional priorities related to diversity, equity, inclusion, social justice, and belonging, as well as support their professional development. The length of the fellowship is flexible, but will be a minimum of one year. Fellow receives a course release and a summer stipend.

Professor Nangia looks forward to working towards the enhancement of measures that generate the feeling and experience of inclusivity and belonging within the UHart faculty and staff community and beyond.

Prof. Nangia shares a quote from James Baldwin, "Not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changed until it is faced."
