

DIVERSITY WEEK KICKOFF 2024

Wilde Auditorium, Harry Jack Gray Center

March 18, 2024 // 12:45-2:00PM

PLEASE JOIN US FOR THE KICKOFF OF DIVERSITY WEEK 2024.

Kamora Herrington will serve as keynote speaker for our opening day workshop where she will address the theme "UMatter@Hart" and emphasize the significance of the concept of "mattering and belonging."

Kamora Le'Ella Herrington

Founder and Visionary of Kamora's Cultural Corner

kamora@kamorasculturalcorner.com

Kamora Le'Ella Herrington is a mother first, in all of the ways that a mother is. She is the founder and visionary of Kamora's Cultural Corner and is an active Cultural Humility presenter and educator who began her formal career as a teacher for the City of Hartford's Early Learning Centers.

Kamora's Cultural Corner provides both a metaphoric and physical space to learn to use the gifts and privileges of our unique and shared identities. Approaching cultural humility through a Black Queer and Afrocentric perspective we create and navigate Brave Spaces with the intention of building and supporting organic community connections.

Questions? Contact:

- Christine Grant, Assistant Vice President for Diversity, Equity, and Community Engagement cgrant@hartford.edu
- Prof/ Kristin Comeforo Associate professor & Director of Graduate Programs, School of Communication COMEFORO@hartford.edu
- Llonia Rojan Jackson, Director, Cultural Diversity and Belonging, Office of Student Engagement and Inclusion ROJANJACK@hartford.edu
- Torshia Maxwell Executive Director, Student Engagement and Inclusion TMAXWELL@hartford.edu