

WHAT DOES YOUR ACTIVISM LOOK LIKE?

Student Panel

Wednesday, February 22

12:45 p.m.

Shaw Center

UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD

OFFICE OF DIVERSITY, EQUITY,
INCLUSION, AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD

OFFICE OF STUDENT
ENGAGEMENT AND INCLUSION

Listening and learning are the first steps toward actively engaging in activism. A panel of UHart students will provide insight into what it means to be an activist, and how young people can engage in activism to create meaningful change in their communities. The panel will also highlight the importance of young people taking charge of movements in society with resilience and hard work.”

Moderator: Kristen Valentine

MLK Student Committee Member
Shaw Center